

THE EDITORS

Issue Editor

Augusto Antonio A. Aguila, CCWLS Resident Fellow, is a fictionist. He is the author of the Heart of Need and Other Stories (UST). He is Executive Secretary to the UST Rector Magnificus and Academic Consultant of ABS-CBN, the largest media conglomerate in the Philippines, and PS Bank. His second book, The Carnival of Hate (UST), won as Best Book (Gawad San Alberto Magno) at the 16th Dangal ng UST Awards. He was awarded Outstanding Alumni in the Humanities by the UST Graduate School. He has a Youtube show called “Pure Tots.”

Managing Editor

Chuckberry J. Pascual, CCWLS Resident Fellow, is a fictionist, essayist, critic, translator, and scholar. He is the author of Kumpisal: mga kuwento (UST), Pagpasok sa Eksena: Ang Sinehan sa Panitikan at Pag-aaral ng Piling Sinehan sa Recto (UP), Ang Tagalabas sa Panitikan (UST), and co-author of Kolab: mga dula (UP). His Ang Nawawala (Visprint) won the National Book Award for Best Book of Short Fiction in Filipino. His translations of the novel, Ilustrado, by Miguel Syjuco, winner of the Man Asian, and of the short story collections by Cristina Pantoja Hidalgo, Where Only the Moon Rages and Ballad of a Lost Season are forthcoming from the UST Publishing House.